JUDGMENT

The learned single Judge has directed to interview the writ petitioners only provisionally making it clear that such interview will not confer any right on the petitioners to stake a claim to be included in the final select list or for selection. Therefore, the appellant - Public Service Commission cannot feel aggrieved or prejudiced by the impugned order of the learned single Judge. The appellant can urge its own contentions when the matter is taken up for final hearing of the writ petition. The writ appeal is dismissed.
